Title: Overwatch Beta Crack.Latest News 26 September 2006 The Word of God Divides, But the Spirit of God Unites One of my favourite hymns is "Amazing Grace." I have used it as a personal prayer many times, and always find it to be a great and comforting set of words. Many years ago, when a number of Christians gathered to worship at the Church where I was a student, the entire congregation took part in singing the hymn as the church was opened for worship. As we sang, we only knew one verse of the song that we all knew together. As we began to sing the next verse, we all took a breath, because we wanted to remember the transition of the new line. Suddenly, the entire congregation shifted into a new unison, and sang the second verse with us. From that time on, I began to use "Amazing Grace" as a personal prayer. It has a special place in my memory. It's comforting to think about, and it reminds me to be the same way with the Lord. How do you like to pray? Do you like to stay conscious of your prayers, taking time to consider the words? Or are you just going through the motions? Do you have favourites verses you like to pray, and when you are through, do you go on to something else? Do you leave it all up to the Holy Spirit? In the scripture above, there are some interesting truths about the Holy Spirit
