The newest version, Photoshop Lightroom, is a content management system for photographers. It can be used to organize and manage photos in a digital darkroom. Photoshop is a program for creating images, graphics, or animations. It is one of the most popular programs used for this purpose, used by photographers, graphic designers, web designers, and many other people. Thousands of people use Photoshop every day. This type of software has been used for quite some time. Many companies even make money by selling software upgrades to people who use the software already. What Photoshop Did, How It Works and What It Can Do Photoshop is a tool created to be used by graphic artists and photographers. It can be used to: Create images by using patterns, shapes, and texture Create photos that look like photos Make things look like people do them Create graphics Make slides Make movies There is a big list of functions that you can use Photoshop to do. Even if you do not know what some of these things mean, it doesn't matter because Photoshop can do them all. To see how Photoshop works, let's look at a couple of photos. This first photo is of a painting of cow holding a star. It looks as if the cow is pulling down the star to eat it. The background is the sky. This is actually a fake photo. The painting is fake and looks like a real painting. This photo is a fake painting. It looks like a real painting. It has been edited in Photoshop. The main reason why this photo looks like it is fake is because the sky in the photo has been edited and looks like a real painting of a cow. This photo was edited in Photoshop too. The main reason why it looks like it is fake is because the star looks like it is a glowing object. What kind of graphic work can you do with Photoshop? You can create: Photos Paintings 3D images 2D images that look like 3D objects Drawings Cartoons Animated gifs Lecture slides Motion graphics Web graphics Animation Comic book Textures 3D textures and models Photoshop is a powerful tool that can be used to make all kinds of works for yourself or for others.
